The "Airplane Room"

"Flyboys" in the BCATP during the Second World War took more than just memories of Canada when they completed their training — thousands took Canadian war brides. Join us for a fascinating audio-visual presentation based on history and personal experience, crossing disciplines, nationalities and generations! Not to be missed!

Bev Tosh is an award-winning Calgary artist and arts educator. She is the daughter of a New Zealand military pilot and his Canadian war bride. One-Way Passage, her exhibition, has been acclaimed nationally and internationally.
