

CAHS Museum Membership

Dear Sir or Madam:

The Canadian Aviation Historical Society (CAHS) has just recently created a new membership category for museums. The CAHS expressly designed the Museum Member option for three purposes: a) To attract museums to join with the CAHS in preserving and celebrating Canada's aviation history; b) To help cross-promote the profile of Canada's aviation museums and the CAHS through the organizations' membership and networks; and c) To foster an increasing sense of community and professionalism amongst aviation museums.

For the annual cost of $100, a Museum Member gains access to the exciting benefits, valued at $230 listed on page two of this form. Thank you for considering this CAHS National Membership option for your institution. Sincerely,

Gary	Williams
