A Prairie Boy's War...

Follow a young man as he joined the Air Cadets in Saskatchewan during the Second World War, undergoing training at various BCATP bases until 1946. A fascinating look at a by-gone era from someone who experienced it personally. Multimedia presentation, not to be missed!

Bill Cameron is a former radio operator, agent, flight dispatcher and general manager of Canadian Pacific Air Lines. After his retirement, he became a consultant for the airline industry. His hobbies include scale modelling, amateur radio and aviation research / publishing.
