Hell Burned Through

Join us in welcoming Susan Raby-Dunne as she launches her latest book which tells the story of Lancaster tail gunner Dave Mould featuring his post war artwork which illustrates in dramatic fashion one man's experience of the harrowing war in the air.

Susan is an author, military historian and WWI and WWII battlefield guide. Susan's first book was Bonfire – The Chestnut Gentleman the essential, true story behind the poem, In Flanders Fields, as told by Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae's war horse, Bonfire.
