A Century of Flight in Alberta

Enjoy a highly visual session that will look at a hundred years of civilian and military aviation history in Alberta, and how aviation has been celebrated and remembered in this province. Colourful, historically accurate and entertaining!

John Chalmers is a member of the board of directors of the Alberta Aviation Museum. He is also a historian for Canada's Aviation Hall of Fame. He is widely published as a writer and photographer, including his recent book, the wartime memoirs Navigator Brothers.
