

Welcome to the 63rd year for the CAHS

Our 63rd National Convention for the Canadian Aviation Historical Society is in Kelowna, British Columbia.

From June 17 to 20, we will celebrate our love for aviation history at the KF Centre for Excellence; in addition to being the venue of all our talks, KF Centre personnel will also be giving us an excellent tour of the Centre. I am excited to share our convention with Aviation Cultures from Australia. This is first for the CAHS, and I am looking forward to sharing our event and seeing so many friends and fellow aviation enthusiasts.

We will start things off with our Meet and Greet Wednesday evening; all the presentations and the tour will be at our host venue, the KF Centre for Excellence. Our banquet will be at the convention hotel, the Four Points by Sheraton Kelowna Airport. The historical presentations will take place on Thursday through Saturday. There is a ZOOM option for anyone unable to attend in person (be sure to have registered for online attendance). Our convention last June in the Nation's Capital of Ottawa was exciting and a huge success. It was so good to be able to see and talk to so many members, and we are looking forward to doing so again, this time in Kelowna.

Blue skies,
