

CANADIAN AVIATION HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Nanton Lancaster Society Air Museum

present

Discover a multimedia analysis of the remarkable beginnings of aviation in Canada, 100 years ago. Learn how Alexander Graham Bell and his Silver Dart machine made history in Nova Scotia, and much more! A unique presentation created by Carl Mills (Toronto) for the CAHS, edited by the Calgary chapter.

Stéphane Guevremont holds a B.A. in History (McGill) and a M.A. in War Studies (RMC). He has been teaching History since 1987 and is completing his doctoral studies at the U of C. He also comments military affairs on CBC French Radio One.
