

CANADIAN AVIATION HISTORICAL SOCIETY

 CALGARY CHAPTER ***

Find out how, in response to technical and marketing challenges, Canadian Pacific Air Lines evolved through four forms of internal 'culture' during its exciting and flamboyant four decades of existence. A fascinating analysis from one of its former executive employees. Not to be missed!

Bill Cameron is a former radio operator, agent, flight dispatcher and general manager of Canadian Pacific Air Lines. After his retirement, he became a consultant for the airline industry. His hobbies include scale modelling, amateur radio and aviation research / publishing.
