The Canadian Fighter Pilot
"An Evolving Archetype in the First and Second World Wars"

 ALAN H. MACDONALD MEMORIAL LECTURE *****

Join our best-selling aviation author and air historian as he reveals the existential world of the fighter pilot by individual, often idiosyncratic, and sometimes emotional narrative. A very rare analysis of Canada's air aces with books on sale too!

Wayne Ralph holds a BA from Memorial University and a MA from the U of C. He served as a military flying instructor and flew airline / federal government aircraft. He was the editor and co-owner of Wings Magazine, and later wrote William Barker VC, and Aces, Warriors & Wingmen.
