

CANADIAN AVIATION HISTORICAL SOCIETY

 CALGARY CHAPTER ***

S/L Ian Bazalgette was the only Albertan awarded the Victoria Cross during the Second World War. Recently discovered by the family and unseen since 1945, his wartime letters offer an intimate look into his personality and thoughts while serving in Bomber Command. A unique talk, not to be missed!

Dave Birrell is a geophysicist, teacher and interpretive guide in the Canadian Rockies. He is a founding director of the Nanton Lancaster Society and became one of its numerous museum volunteers. He takes great care of the library / archives section.
