WILLIE McKNIGHT

A Forgotten Fighter Pilot

Discover the incredible story of Canada's most skillful but now forgotten fighter pilot, William Lidstone McKnight! Experience the thrill of his daring missions during the Battle of Britain, his 16 ½ kills and his Calgary connection. Not to be missed!

Richard de Boer was a founding member, first curator and president of Calgary's Aero Space Museum, and later curator of the Canadian Warplane Heritage Museum in Hamilton, ON. A licenced private pilot, he currently serves as the president of the Calgary Mosquito Society and CAHS YYC.
