

CAHS Regina Chapter Activities Report Covering 2025

The CAHS Regina Chapter was pleased to host these monthly chapter speakers & banquet.

January - Regina Airport Authority fire chief Jason Everitt on his work, its training and its hazards.

February - retired broadcaster Ted Deller on his fascination with Airbus Industries and its products.

March - Greg Putz on his discovery of an amazing collection of colour slides taken in the 1950s and early 1960s at airports across northern Saskatchewan.

April - Regina Airport Authority CEO James Bogusz on the current health of his facility.

May - film night with the National Film Board's 1954 documentary Aircrew and an episode of the documentary Guardians of the North, on fighting forest fires in northern Saskatchewan.

June - chapter display at the annual open house of the Regina Flying club.

July & August – No meetings.

September - Regina author Deana Driver on her new book written with bush pilot Dorrin Wallace.

October - Gary Williams shows a collection of slides from the 2025 CAHS national convention in Ottawa.

November - Supper with the Snowbirds, an annual banquet sponsored in conjunction with 600 Wing of the Royal Canadian Air Force Association, one that brings together CAHS members, RCAFA members, air cadets and other members of the community to meet the groundcrew and aircrew of 431 Squadron, the RCAF Snowbirds.

December – No meeting.

Blue skies,

Gary Williams

Gary Williams, CAHS National President