Discover the story of a young woman who grows up on a farm in Saskatchewan and joins the air force during the Second World War. Overseas, she became an interpreter of aerial photographs, spying on the enemy from the sky, searching out bomb targets on the continent. Not to be missed!

Elinor Florence grew up on a former wartime airport near North Battleford, SK and worked for newspapers in Western Canada. A regular contributor to Reader's Digest for eight years, she published her own weekly newspaper in Invermere, B.C.
