

CANADIAN AVIATION HISTORICAL SOCIETY

 CALGARY CHAPTER ***

Enjoy a lively multimedia presentation about the forgotten Canadian artillery personnel who flew above Western Europe with the RCAF at the end of the Second World War. Discover this fascinating chapter of our aviation heritage with a book review from the author himself.

Best-selling author and historian Darrell Knight is a former Canadian Forces paratrooper, who also trained with the defence forces of Belize and Israel. A seasoned arctic pilot with Buffalo Airways, he travelled extensively around the globe.
